ProfitStars® Introduces Opening Act Express

11/10/10

MONETT, Mo., Nov. 10, 2010 /PRNewswire/ -- Jack Henry & Associates, Inc. (Nasdaq: JKHY), a leading provider of integrated technology solutions and data processing services for financial institutions, today announced its ProfitStars division has introduced Opening Act Express, a Web-based deposit account origination system.

Through a strategic partnership with MeridianLink, financial institutions can implement Opening Act Express to offer basic online account opening services and expand the service based on evolving customer and market demands. Opening Act Express can be integrated with any core and Internet banking platform and can support institution-defined deposit products.

Opening Act Express enables customers to open new deposit accounts and transfer funds into them via ACH, debit cards, and credit cards. The process includes multiple identity verifications, credit and OFAC checks, and queries against check history.

Doug Glagola, vice president of Business Development at MeridianLink commented, "Aligning with ProfitStars to provide Opening Act Express further diversifies its product and service offering and strengthens our long-term relationship with Jack Henry & Associates. More importantly, Opening Act Express enables banks and credit unions of all asset sizes to offer the Web-based services that they need to succeed and grow in today's virtual marketplace."

According to David Foss, president of ProfitStars, "MeridianLink is a proven leader in online account opening and loan origination solutions and Jack Henry & Associates' clients have benefitted from our partnership for many years. We are pleased to now extend the benefits of this successful alliance to financial institutions of all asset sizes and charters and regardless of core system. Opening Act Express offers the flexibility to initiate account opening with the bare essentials and expand to more advanced services — proven scalability that is very important as consumer demand for online services continues to escalate."
